My darling Mother, Father & Carrie

Just a few lines
dears to let you know that at last Murray and I have managed to reach Scotland. We left Camp Friday morning and arrived in London about

1/2 30 A.M. we had quite a good day in London
But to tell you the honest truth London is too large for my liking
all those thousands of people and never know
a soul has a decided tendency of making a
person stone sick

we left London at 10<sup>30</sup> P.M. and arrived here at 8<sup>30</sup> A.M. ~~Sund~~ Sat, and believe me dear
it was some trip in the first place the train was crowded and in
the second we nearly froze, outside of that it was all right. A little incident occurred on the train that made me think of Home and
mother and made me
real down Home. Sick
A couple of soldiers were in our coach who just came over on pass from France. They were both Scots. One had been.

then a year and the other 18 months. They were going home on their pass and their mother did not know
they were coming. Kind of a surprise party and they were so tickled
about it. I just made
leave from Camp Borden and I told them not to leave their hats under the Hall roof or it
would give the game
away.
Well dear this is certainly a beautiful city But nothing can compare with little

my last letter that I received the Cable set
that Carrie sent and
believe me dear that is the only thing that
made this little trip possible. Murray is sitting at the next
table writing also. I wish you could all

see some of the Beautiful sights we have seen but believe me
dear, what we have seen and done here does not make up for what we have missed, our Home & Sweethearts
and it will be a
wonderful day to me
dear, when Bobby comes back Home. I am very proud of the pictures of the Bungalow and have got them all day-
eared all ready from
looking at them.
Remember me to
all dears with Best
love.

Bert.
