

Sunday, November 3/18
Canadian Segregation Camp.
Kinnel Park.

Mr. Rhyl, North Wales.

My darling Mother Father & Sis.

Well dears here we are another Sunday and if I did not make a practice of writing on Sunday I do not think I would write from here.

We arrived up here Thursday night and I was certainly not very much impressed with our new home and my impression has not changed any, But there is one good thing about it we are not staying here very long.

The flu seems to be getting under control now, and there is some talk of lifting quarantine on Monday There are a bunch of conscripts here and believe me I am glad I am a reservist around here as they are working the day lights out of the new men, we are doing absolutely nothing and that is all we intend doing until we have our leave, and by the way things look in the war line I would not be surprised if the fighting were all over by then

I do not think it will be very long before we are back home again now and some of us even had a hunch that

This was a demobilization Camp.

I am feeling fine and hope you are all feeling well

Remember me to all
Your loving Son & Brother
Bob.
